

“Between every two pines is a doorway to a new world.” - John Muir

The Gifted Tree welcomes you to the virtual world of finding your tree planting location. As you know, someone has planted a gift tree in honor of you or someone you love. Your tree has been or will be planted in Northern Georgia. Unlike most of our tree planting projects that plant trees in a specific forest, this reforestation project plants trees across a wide swath of about 44 counties in northern Georgia (see map below).

As Atlanta and its suburbs continue to grow, forestland is commonly clearcut, fragmented, developed and converted to other land use. Your project will work with public and private landowners to plant trees and to manage resources in the area. The reforestation project will include the planting of red oak trees along longleaf, shortleaf and loblolly pines, all native species. This project will enhance wildlife habitat, and communities will benefit from the clean air and clean water resulting from the new tree growth. An additional benefit: these yellow pine species fit well with multiple resource management, as they are fire tolerant.

You can view the general areas of your planting by clicking on the following link:

Once connected to the map, feel free to zoom in and out to get a feel of the general planting area as well as its location in Georgia, the U.S., and the world. Please understand that this is the general area of your tree planting as our project takes place throughout the northern Georgia counties. Your tree is planted among thousands of other gift trees and there is no plaque designating your gift tree. Unfortunately, visiting the tree is not possible.

Enjoy your gifted tree and know that it is making a monumental difference for the earth and opening a new doorway to the world for future generations.
