

“Between every two pines is a doorway to a new world.” - John Muir

The Gifted Tree welcomes you to the virtual world of finding your tree planting location. As you know, someone has planted a gift tree in honor of you or someone you love. Your tree has been or will be planted in areas around Somerset County, Maine.

With a past history of intense logging activities combined with heavy moose grazing and grass invasion, regeneration of the forests in these areas will not occur naturally. The purpose of the project is to restore healthy forests ecosystems, which will provide habitat for wildlife and will contribute, at the landscape scale, to the increase of the presence of forest species that have been negatively impacted by the intense harvest that occurred in the region in the past century.

Your project is mostly composed of white spruce, combined with red pine, white pine, red spruce, and black spruce, and will contribute to provide habitat to species that occupy forest instead of open areas like moose, deer, bears, foxes, hares, grouses and many other mammals, birds and insects. It will contribute to the ecosystem resistance and resilience against insects and will also contribute to the capture of carbon through trees thereby fighting climate change.

You can view the general area of your planting by clicking on the following link:

Once connected to the map, feel free to zoom in and out to get a feel of the general planting area as well as its location in the United States and the world. The link is best viewed on a personal computer. Please understand that this is the general area of your tree planting. Your tree is planted among thousands of other gift trees and there is no plaque designating your gift tree and visiting the tree is unfortunately not possible.

Enjoy your gifted tree and know that it is making a monumental difference for the earth and opening a new doorway to the world for future generations.
